First Financial Bank distributes more than $128,000 from charitable trusts Posted: Wednesday, February 4, 2015 10:00 am Funds totaling $128,377.45 from trusts established by Oscar Baur, Frederick R. Benson, Mary Smith Young and Sheldon Swope were distributed to 58 area not-for-profit organizations this morning. These four prominent Terre Haute citizens established trusts through their wills at First Financial Bank, providing for the charitable gifts. Funds from the trusts are distributed to charitable organizations annually, based on the benefactor's criteria. Distributions were made to the following organizations at a morning reception held at the First Conference Center.

The Maple Center, Inc is one of the not-for-profit organizations to receive funds.
